FROM OUR FILES

It Happened This Week in...

1990- Residents at Lifecare of Kiowa had the TV turned on to the Liberty Bowl all evening long Thursday hoping to catch a glimpse of the South Barber High School band, which performed in the parade and at the game.

The Kiowa City Council took up the issue of "jay-parking" and asked residents to sign complaints against persons who make the illegal left turns to park on Main Street.

Temperatures to start the new year were in the 40's and 50's in the Kiowa area.
